

Brain and Cognition Seminar

January, February and March 2019

Tuesday 8 Jan. 2019	ABIM'19	January 6-10, 2019 - Champéry, Switzerland
Tuesday 15 Jan. 2019	CNP	Mickael Tanter Langevin Institute E.S.P.C.I Paris, CNRS UMR7587, France Functional Ultrasound (fUS) Imaging: a new neuroimaging modality for neuroscience.
Tuesday 22 Jan. 2019	COSYN	Geraldine Rauchs Université de Caen Normandie, France Relationships between sleep quality, cognition and brain integrity in ageing and Alzheimer's disease.
Tuesday 29 Jan. 2019	COSYN	C.Shawn Green Department of psychology, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA Toward a Consensus on Methodology in Cognitive Training.
Tuesday 5 Feb. 2019	COSYN	Cyriel M.A Pennartz Faculty of Science, Swammerdam Institute for Life Sciences, NL Consciousness, perception and multisensory interactions: theory and experiment.
Tuesday 12 Feb. 2019	COSYN	Tomer Shechner Psychology Department, University of Haifa, Israël Fear learning across development: From risk factors of anxiety disorders to targets for intervention.
Tuesday 26 Feb. 2019	COSYN	Gabrielle Girardeau Institut du Fer-a-Moulin - Inserm/Sorbonne Université, France Sleep and Emotional Memory.
Tuesday 5 Mar. 2019	CISA	Sander Van der Linden Department of psychology, University of Cambridge, GB. Saving the planet because it feels good: The role of warm-glow and intrinsic motivation in sustainable decision-making.
Tuesday 12 Mar. 2019	COSYN	Alex Zenon Bordeaux Neurocampus, France Information theoretic perspective on the costs of cognition.
Tuesday 19 Mar. 2019	COSYN	Michal Lavidor Department of Psychology, Bar-Ilan University, Israël Non-Invasive brain stimulation effects on cognition and brain activity: Positive and negative findings.
Tuesday 26 Mar. 2019		Cognitive Neuroscience Society, San Francisco