

Brain and Cognition Seminar

April, May and June 2017

Tuesday	04.04.2017	Sebastien BOURET CNRS, France The effort reward trade off: Complementary roles of ventromedial prefrontal cortex and catecholaminergic neuromodulators.
Tuesday	11.04.2017	Aidan HORNER Department of Psychology, University of York, UK Closing the loop on hippocampal pattern completion and recollection
Tuesday	18.04.2017	EASTER
*Tuesday	25.04.2017	Annekathrin SCHACHT Affective Neuroscience and Psychophysiology Lab., University of Goettingen Impacts of Associated and Inherent Emotional Salience on Visual Sensory Processing: Evidence from Event-Related Brain Potentials (ERPs)
Tuesday	02.05.2017	Philipp KANSKE CBS - Germany Psychopathology of the Social Brain: From Emotion Regulation to Empathy and Theory of Mind
*Tuesday	09.05.2017	Aaron MESKIN School of Philosophy, Religion and History of Science, University of Leeds, UK Dual Character Art Concepts
Tuesday	16.05.2017	Grégoire BORST LaPsyDE (CNRS), Université Paris Descartes – USPC, France Inhibitory control, neurocognitive development and education from childhood to adulthood"
Tuesday	23.05.2017	Francesca GARBARINI Department of Psychology, University of Turin, Italy Pathological embodiment after brain damages: behavioral and physiological
Tuesday	30.05.2017	Claire GILLAN Trinity College Dublin, Ireland Trans-diagnostic psychiatry: compulsivity and goal-directed control
*Tuesday	06.06.2017	Collin LEACH Psychological Sciences, University of Connecticut, USA Police Force Black Protest: Tracing systems of appraisal, emotion, coping
*Tuesday	13.06.2017	Brian KNUTSON Psychology and Neuroscience, Stanford University, USA Anticipatory affect and the neural prediction of choice
Tuesday	20.06.2017	INS
Tuesday	27.06.2017	OHBM